"When I came to Sweden with my family, it was important for me to learn the language and to establish myself in the local community. I have trained as an assistant nurse, but my desire is to work with food and service. For a few years now I have been running an Ethiopian restaurant in a district of Östersund. I want to share with others my experiences of how I have entered the community. I also want more people in Sweden to taste and enjoy our traditional Ethiopian food culture and take part in the Ethiopian coffee ceremony"
